MDOT reopens Northbound I-75

Flint, Michigan. ---

The Michigan Department of Transportation has announced that northbound I-75, which had been closed Wednesday night for emergency repairs to the Carpenter Road overpass, has been completely reopened. The entrance ramps to NB I-75 at Bristol Road, Miller Road, Corunna Road and Pierson Road, and from WB I-69 to NB I-75, including the ramp to Miller Road, have also been reopened.

The Carpenter Road overpass itself remains closed until further notice.

For additional information contact MDOT's Matt Tompkins at (989) 233-6368, or Genesee County Road Commission Assistant Maintenance Director Fred Jackson at 810-767-4920.
